

Yellow fever factsheet

Yellow fever is caused by a virus, which circulates between infected monkeys or humans and mosquitoes and occurs in parts of the tropical and sub-tropical regions of Africa and South/Central America (including Trinidad)

This factsheet is no longer available on the Yellow Fever Zone. Visit TravelHealthPro to view the most up-to-date version here.