

NaTHNaC opening hours returning to normal

The Administration Line is returning to normal opening hours

With effect from Tuesday 1 July 2025, the NaTHNaC Administration Line for general enquiries will return to normal opening hours from Monday to Friday, between 9am – 5pm.

In the future, during times of staff shortage it may be necessary to return to reduced opening hours. The line will remain closed on weekends and Bank Holidays.

The NaTHNaC team would like to thank users for their patience, while the line has been operating on reduced opening hours.
