Temporary disruption to email services

NaTHNaC is currently experiencing disruption to email services due to a Microsoft service outage - telephone services remain unaffected

Following a Microsoft service outage, NaTHNaC continues to experience intermittent disruption to its email services.

Although some emails are being received, normal service has not yet been confirmed and responses may be delayed. Our telephone lines remain unaffected.

We apologise for any inconvenience caused.